READING OF ASK A MEXICAN

Sep 22, 2017
Experience an exclusive first reading of a new play in development by playwright Anthony J. Garcia, in collaboration with Ask a Mexican award-winning author Gustavo Arellano.

YISSY & BANDANCHA IN CONCERT

Dec 3, 2017
San José debut of international award-winning percussionist Yissy García and her acclaimed band, Bandancha. This ensemble is exemplary of the boundary-breaking stylistically hybrid sounds brewing within Cuba's contemporary young music scene.

LATIN STANDARDS BY MARGA GOMEZ

Feb 9-11, 2018
Latin Standards is Marga Gomez's new solo piece about fathers, entertainment, wealth, poverty and café cubano. Marga revisits the triumphs and demons of her father Willy Chevalier: comedian, producer, songwriter, Café El Pico spokesperson, and a prominent figure in the golden era of New York's Latino culture.

DMC STUDIO

This free arts education program is dedicated to mentoring Silicon Valley youth (ages 13-19) in 21st century skill development through multimedia production, including professional video and sound production, photography, and slam poetry. More information at maclaarte.org/DMCStudio

TAKE A CLASS

MACLA's year-round adult classes are a fun and accessible way to explore your creative side. No experience necessary.

RENT MACLA

Stage your next special event at MACLA! Our black box theater, The Castellano Playhouse, and gallery offer a contemporary, unique, and artistic setting for any occasion - from performances, quinceañeras, and parties to rehearsals, classes and meetings.

DMC Studio facilities are available for DJs, beat producers, singers, sound engineers, video editors, cinematographers, and dancers with rehearsal and professional recording/filming studio needs.

Outdoor celebrations both large and small fit into the colorful setting of Urban Rooms by Teddy Cruz at Parque de los Pobladores across the street from MACLA.
