17th LATINO ART NOW! Exhibition
April 3—May 16, 2015
MACLA, 510 South First Street, San José, CA 95113

March 2, 2015 (San José, CA)—MACLA/Movimiento de Arte y Cultura Latino Americana presents its 17th Latino Art Now! Exhibition, from April 3 through May 16, 2015. This long-running and popular exhibition, a survey of the best contemporary art from Bay Area, national, and international Latino artists, coincides with the celebration of MACLA's 25th anniversary as one of the leading community arts centers in the West Coast. This year's exhibition reflects the breadth of visual arts media for which MACLA is known. It includes New York-based photographers Remy Amezcua and Dulce Pinzón; multi-media/mixed-media artists Carmen Argote, Cristina Velásquez, Linda Vallejo, and Yvonne Escalante; muralists Juana Alicia and Wayne Alaniz Healy; Bay Area printmaker Melanie Cervantes; glass artist Jaime Guerrero, and much more.
