VISUAL ARTS EXHIBITIONS @MACLA

free admission

ON FILM: CAPTURING THE THEN AND NOW
September 4, 2019 – November 17, 2019
On Film showcases the work of artists who use film to explore self-representation, identity, and pop culture.

OUR CONNECTION TO THE LAND
December 4, 2019 – March 15, 2020
Explore the vision of artists whose work reflects our connection to the land - from the food we eat to the distances between us and home.

22ND LATINO ART NOW!
April 1, 2020 – May 16, 2020
Live Auction: May 16, 2020
Celebrate contemporary Latino art with an artist meet-and-greet, a lively auction, local entertainment and food. Auction proceeds support MACLA’s programs.

LOVE IN THE TIME OF CHAOS
June 4, 2020 – August 16, 2020
This exhibition explores how in times of chaos artists are choosing to preserve themselves and their loved ones as a means to pay homage to love and occupied space.

CARMEN MARIA MACHADO READING & CONVERSATION WITH LINDA CASTILLO
October 24, 2019
MACLA and the Center for Literary Arts (CLA) will present Carmen Maria Machado, author of Her Body and Other Parties in conversation with Linda Castillo, founder and executive editor of Modern. In Her Body and Other Parties, Carmen Maria Machado blithely demolishes the arbitrary borders between psychological realism and science fiction, comedy and horror, fantasy and fabulism.
The reading will be followed by an on-stage interview, plus an audience Q&A, book sale and signing.

WHY WOULD I MISPRONOUNCE MY OWN NAME?
November 15-16, 2019
When Irma Herrera gives her name its correct Spanish pronunciation, some people assume she’s not a real American. What part of Irma’s identity is she asked to give up for the sake of fitting in and getting along? How can a simple introduction turn into a potential battle to be heard and seen? Weaving history and comedic insights, this lawyer-turned-performer invites us to consider how open and welcoming we really are. Best of SF Solo Series 2019–2020.

WE HAVE IRÉ
March 13–15, 2020
Experience a new multidisciplinary theater piece by award-winning poet, performance artist, and playwright Paul S. Flores, who combines live Latin jazz and timba beats, dance, and spoken word to explore Cuban artists, immigration and Afro-Cuban themes. Developed with jazz composer Yosvany Terry, DJ Leydis, choreographer Ramón Ramos Alayó, and director Rosaiba Rolón, We Have Iré is a play about blessing, good fortune, balance and destiny.
#FirstFridayFiesta at South First Fridays

The South First Fridays art walk in downtown San José is a self-guided evening tour through galleries, museums, and independent creative businesses. MACLA stays open late bringing the very best music of the Latino diaspora in the Bay Area. From Afro-Latino Music to Cumbia and Latin Fusion, join us for our #FirstFridayFiesta to enjoy an interactive performance and check out our gallery. Move with us!

Mark your calendars!

MACLA in the COMMUNITY

Latinx Film Screening Series
MACLA has teamed with Cinema Club Silicon Valley to present a quarterly series of Latinx films revolving around sophisticated and artistically ambitious screenings. All films in the series will feature Spanish dialogue with English subtitles.
For programming schedule visit cinemaclassiconsiliconvalley.com

The Art of Movement Building and Organizing
October 19, 2019, 10 a.m.
MACLA in collaboration with Working Partnerships USA (WPUSA) will offer a half-day seminar led by artist Favianna Rodriguez for local artists to learn about strategies to incorporate community organizing and civic engagement into their artistic practices. At the end of the seminar, artists will have the opportunity to apply for a new artist-in-residence program at WPUSA.
